

Diary of Always (Live At Wembley)

Biffy Clyro

I just wish we all could betray
I just wish we all could betray
I just wish we all could betray
I just wish we all could betray I'm the one distinctly plain to you
For a solemn glance is another hopeful taste Did you wish for your pain?
Did you wish for your pain? Wish I could have faltered
Wish I could have changed
Wish I could have faltered
Wish I could have changed I'm the one distinctly plain to you
For a solemn glance is another hopeful taste Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh Wish I could have faltered
Wish I could have changed
Wish I could have faltered
Wish I could have changed I just wish we all could betray
I just wish we all could betray
I just wish we all could betray
