Christ Agony

oh god
I have seen my reflexion in your eyes my face was not there I'm a child of a deviloh god look at me
this is my belief
it's me
that changes the wine into the blood and my body is to be eaten by your congregationoh god
this is my beliefI wanted to extinguish the candles on my own altar
I've tried to conquer the day which smouldered my body I've tried the blood from my own face I've tried my own crown which kneds before you, humiliated the dark ones in hoods have taken everything they have trodden my ceremonies and burned
both my god and his womanthey cried to the sky stand up you bitch take the wine cup and the roses from your naked knees cover your pure desiresI saw their scream burning saw them licking up their tears saw the holy night burning stained eyes supsended in the darknesscrowded crosses at night filled altars at night
sacronocturn
the loneliness disappears among tears the belief is vanishing among crosses sacronocturnblood brotherhood is belief destruction belief, that's sitting in your hips in your hips there's a hidden fear against the holy sign against smell of incense your womb

took christ
his ribs rubbed with your breast like a loft
a holy covenant has come I know, that your hips have taken a god
and they demand a new one crowded crosses at night
