Degenerate

Sister Machine Gun

No, I don't think you're a bad person
For wanting to be wanted by someone
It's lonely through the night
But don't act blind
Your heart's not a playing card
Reputation shows their hand
So I'd fold now before you're stuck all inWon't even hold you and you're lying in their bed
'Cause they don't want to Get it through your headDegenerate only wants one thing
Don't give it up
I know you're feeling lonely
But you'll be worse when
They've had enough
Had enough
So don't give it up, give it upYou know by now
Snakes are hardest to catch
Until their mouth's around your neck
Smooth on the surface but felt a bite
It's not the life
You've earned your degree
Wise to know cheap talk from flattery
So i'd drop out
Before you're who you hateWon't even hold you and you let them have their way
'Cause they don't want to
It's just another dayDegenerate only wants one thing
Don't give it up
I know you're feeling lonely
But you'll be worse when
They've had enoughDegenerate only wants one thing
Don't give it up
I know you're feeling lonely
But you'll be worse when
They've had enough
Had enough
Don't give it upI can't be everywhere for everyone all the time
If I could, I would fix this whole world
All I ask of you
Never compromise
Never let the leeches try and suck out your soulI can't be everywhere for everyone all the time

If I could, I would fix this whole world
All I ask of you
Never compromise
Never let the leeches try and suck out your soulDegenerate only wants one thing
Don't give it up
I know you're feeling lonely
But you'll be worse when
They've had enoughDegenerate only wants one thing
Don't give it up
I know you're feeling lonely
But you'll be worse when
They've had enoughHad enough
So don't give it up, give it up
