Paralyzed

Black Flag

(yeah...!)
Spinning down the drain again
Walls closing in again
Curling up inside again
No way in out up down or otherwise againI can't move
I can't speak
I can't shake these troubles off of me
I can't move
I can't speak
And I can't shake these troubles off of meTracking (?)in wrapped up again
Shadows
Inward, turning inward again
Paralyzed and going blind againI can't move
I can't speak
And I can't shake these troubles off of me
I can't move
I can't speak
And I can't shake these troubles off of meI can't move and
I can't speak and
I can't shake these troubles off of me
I can't move
I can't speak
And I can't shake these troubles off of meWound up so tight again
My soul seeps out it's pores
Paralyzed and going blind
Paralyzed and going blind againI can't move
I can't speak
And I can't shake these troubles off of me
I can't move
I can't speak
And I can't shake these feelings off of me(yeah...!)
