

Paralyzed

Black Flag

(yeah...!)

Spinning down the drain again
Walls closing in again
Curling up inside again
No way in out up down or otherwise again I can't move
I can't speak
I can't shake these troubles off of me
I can't move
I can't speak
And I can't shake these troubles off of me Tracking (?) in wrapped up again
Shadows
Inward, turning inward again
Paralyzed and going blind again I can't move
I can't speak
And I can't shake these troubles off of me
I can't move
I can't speak
And I can't shake these troubles off of me I can't move and
I can't speak and
I can't shake these troubles off of me
I can't move
I can't speak
And I can't shake these troubles off of me Wound up so tight again
My soul seeps out it's pores
Paralyzed and going blind
Paralyzed and going blind again I can't move
I can't speak
And I can't shake these troubles off of me
I can't move
I can't speak
And I can't shake these feelings off of me (yeah...!)
