

Chimes

Project 86

I hear a voice speakin' softly amidst the breathin'
An invitation to a place where hearts are beatin'
To a place where your dreams are made
Where songs are played
Where drinkin' never ceases and no dismay I'm pushing my senses away to take another step
My conscience aware of my heart's intent
I feel a whisper, a friendly voice start to rise
Indulge 'til your heart's content and pay no mind Tomorrow is a lifetime away this is here
The time is now, so there's nothin' to fear
This hint of disaster is a beautiful face
Hiding grins, frontin' chills of warm embrace I'll take you to a place where chimes are ringin'
To a place with a chill where souls are singin'
I'll bring you to a state of nightmares clingin'
Where your innocence dies with lies I'm bringin' I'll take you to a place where chimes are ringin'
To a place with a chill where souls are singin'
I'll bring you to a state of nightmares clingin'
Where your innocence dies with lies I'm bringin' I'll take you to a place lyin' six feet below
Where bodies lie cowerin' soft and slow
And where the song of the chimes keeps ringin'
And outside the window the demons are singin' I see the faces aware but room is empty
And now I'm owned by my lifeless stare, my shelves are bare
I'm dreamin' about the second chance to go back
Rewind the clock and attempt a playback Take you to a place where chimes are ringin'
To a place with a chill where souls are singin'
I'll bring you to a state of nightmares clingin'
Where your innocence dies with lies I'm bringin' I'll take you to a place where chimes are ringin'
To a place with a chill where souls are singin'
I'll bring you to a state of nightmares clingin'
Where your innocence dies with lies I'm bringin' Follow me, follow me, follow me
Follow me to pain
Follow me, follow me, follow me
Follow me and I'll tell you Winds blowing, sounds ringing, heart racing, soul tight
Mouths closing, night falling, tears flowing, hair glowing
Winds blowing, sounds ringing, heart racing, soul tight
Mouths closing, night falling, tears flowing
You lied to me! Follow me, follow me, follow me
And follow me to pain
Just follow me, follow me, follow me
Follow me I'll take you to a place where chimes are ringin'

To a place with a chill where souls are singin'
I'll bring you to a state of nightmares clingin'
Where your innocence dies with lies I'm bringin'I'll take you to a place where chimes are ringin'
To a place with a chill where souls are singin'
I'll bring you to a state of nightmares clingin'
Where your innocence dies with lies I'm bringin'
