Told You So

Marcie Blane

We told you so, We told you so ya wouldnt listen well now you know i know warned me the boys no good no one can change him i thought i could and i was doing fine until lastnight well girls, you were right!
We told you so, We told you so
i couldnt help it you know his charms you know what happens when your in his arms i never thought that they would find a gun well girls, i was wrong
he said he loved me (we said he'd break your heart) and i believe him (that boy is very smart) why didnt you stop me (because you stayed away Marcie what more can we say) i should of listend i was a fool i never knew that boys could be so cruel but i can never say i wasn't cold you all told me so
We told you so, We told you so (you told me so) ya wouldnt listen well (you told me so) now you know We told you so, We told you so i wouldnt listen well now i know
