

Love's To Blame

for KING & COUNTRY

Time and time
You've thought through it all
How we loved and loved
And how we fought each other,
Pushing one another to be somebody else And time and time
I wrestled my thoughts
Uncertain if the end was right or wrong,
And whether we should be together
Or with somebody else That last memory,
She had water in her eyes
She cried stay with me
And asked how can this be love if you're leaving me?
But darling, love's to blame And I can't see you right now
'Cause I just can't fake it
Come be near you right now
'Cause I know you're no longer mine
I can't see you It makes me ache
That we had to break
That even though I knew we had it so well
We're strangers in different places though we live a mile apart My best friend's gone,
My world has been torn
We'll never share a name
Never be one
But I will always remember the years we spent in love I still think of you
I pray that you are safe
I'm still missing you
But it has to be this way cause I'm not right for you
And that's why love's to blame And I can't see you right now
'Cause I just can't fake it
Come be near you right now
'Cause I know you're no longer mine
And I can't see you right now
'Cause I just can't take it
Come be near you right now
'Cause I know you're no longer mine
And I can't see you
No I can't see you
I just can't see you right now Maybe time will heal our hearts
Maybe after time you'll understand

I said goodbye but I love you And I can't see you right now
'Cause I just can't fake it
Come be near you right now
'Cause I know you're no longer mine And I can't see you right now
'Cause my heart just can't take it
Come be near you right now
'Cause I know you're no longer mine And I can't see you
No I can't see you
I just can't see you right now And I can't see you
No I can't see you
I just can't see you right now And love's to blame
