Nothing Like You

Sebadoh

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

If I'm right, sometimes I forget I might Shallow as the brook out back
Bedtime stories that you can't take backFigure how to be a friend to you
God knows I want toThere's a lot of girls in the world
That are nothing like you
There's no need to condescendNot knowing, careful to pretend
Give away your fucked-up friends
Tired news and damaged trendsFigure how to be a friend to you
God knows I want to
There's a lot of girls in the world
That are nothing like youIf we play your games
Won't have time to play my games
Forget how to be myself
But now I've got it figured outThey're nothing like you
They're nothing like you
They're nothing like you
They're nothing like you
