Hotel Apache

I'm being honest, this dialect is complex,
I'll never understand the words you said to me tonight.
I'm feeling far fetched, my heart is feeling compressed,
But I love to waste the day away with you and me tonight.So just breathe your life, we'll steal back your heart tonight,
When we arrive with guns on your buried site.We'll take them all down,
With my back against the wall now,
I'd go down in a hail of fire for you to love tonight.
I'll take the fall now, I think we outta run now,
They're coming so lets hide away into the lights tonight.So just breathe your life, we'll steal back your heart tonight
When we arrive with guns on your buried site.So just breathe your life, we'll steal back your heart tonight
When we arrive with guns on your buried site.
Just breathe your life, we'll steal back your heart tonight
And when we arrive with guns on your buried site,
I'm being honest.
