Everybody Runs

The Butterfly Effect

Hope
You let me down
Again
Turn to stone loose ground
Cry
When you feel no more
Trust
You've been longing forYou let me down
Once again
Everybody runs
It's a crime
That you blame me for
When we lie
Are they closing doors?
Are you slowly giving up?
Are you slowly giving up?Everybody runs
Hope
You let me down
Again
Turn to stone loose ground
Cry
When you feel no more
Trust
You've been longing forYou let me down
Once again
Everybody runsIt's a crime
That you blame me for
When we lie
Are they closing doors?
Are you slowly giving up?
Are you slowly giving up?Everybody runs
