Daihaminkay (Call This World Remix)Â

Fool's Garden

Daihaminkay
Daihaminko
I can't explain
Why is it so ?My adrenaline
Is on a level so high
And when you touch
Me now i dieMy love
Shoot me away to the stars aboveI fly
I've swallowed
To much in days gone by
But I won't swallow
Anymore I tried to find a light inside this hollow
Until you came
There was noone to followDaihaminkay
Daihaminko
What does it mean
I do not knowI do not care
On such a beautiful day
Daihaminkay
I hear you sayYes I am ready my loveI fly
I've swallowed
To much in days gone by
But I won't swallow
Anymore I tried to find a light inside this hollow
Until you came
There was noone to followUntil you came the sky was grey
And now you brighten up this hollowAnd I fly
I've swallowed
To much in days gone by
But I won't swallow
Anymore I tried to find a light inside this hollow
Until you came
There was noone to followWe are ready for the real life
We are ready for the real life, baby
We are ready for the real life
We are ready for the real life, babyAnd I fly
You can call this world
And it will hear you
