

Beauty And The Buzz

Alejandro Escovedo

Sitting on a fence, the big fence between time and space.
Lookin' for a clue, saw it on your face.
Found another world in a grain of sand.
You know I left so long, 'fore I planned. And the answer lies where it always does,
Somewhere between the beauty and the buzz.
The tears will fall out of my mind's eye.
Rain like jet debris down from the sky. Play the guitar, son, you'll always have a friend.
Never be alone. The romance never ends.
Just an April fool runnin' one month late.
You know the joke's on me. And the laughter fades. And the answer lies where it always does,
Somewhere between the beauty and the buzz.
The tears will fall out of my mind's eye.
Rain like jet debris down from the sky. Once there was an owl, wide-eyed all night long.
Up with the larks, sang an old-time song.
Then I heard a voice, echoing around the room.
It's a pretty short movie.
It always ends too soon.
Always ends too soon. And the answer lies where it always does,
Somewhere between the beauty and the buzz.
The tears will fall out of my mind's eye.
Rain like jet debris down from the sky. And the answer lies where it always does,
Somewhere between the beauty and the buzz.
The tears will fall out of my mind's eye.
Rain like jet debris down from the sky.
