Dance Party Plus

Head Automatica

You'll never catch a penny-pinchin' liar off guard
You can't escape the tension till it leaves you undone
You can't imagine passion till your hearts become one
You'll never feel the rhythm till the beat has just begun
A thousand acts of thoughtlessness
A thousand acts of thoughtlessness
In and out I'm dancing in and out
I'm dancing in your head, I'm in your head
In and out I'm dancing in and out
I'm dancing in your head, I'm in your head
Set against a ravishing backdrop
With a bleak and violent future
Now with no common cause here
We're marooned with a hungry vulture, yeah
So pack the club to the rafters
Droppin' rhymes to electrical sound
With beacons of light and a hope here
We got the room spinnin' round and round
In and out I'm dancing in and out
I'm dancing in your head, I'm in your head
In and out I'm dancing in and out
I'm dancing in your head, I'm in your head
In and out I'm dancing in and out
I'm dancing in your head, I'm in your head
In and out I'm dancing in and out
I'm dancing in your head, I'm in your head
Dance party, plus destruction
Dance party, plus corruption
Dance party, plus destruction
Dance party, here I come to dance party
(I'm in your head)
Dance party plus destruction
(I'm in your head)
Dance party plus corruption
(I'm in your head)
Dance party plus destruction
(I'm in your head)
Dance party here I go
