

I'll Never Get Over

Inspirations

We read in the bible,
Godâ€™s holy pages,
the story of mercy
passed through the ages.
Godâ€™s law demanded again & again
without shedding blood,
no remission of sin.
There must come a lamb,
an atonement be made.
â€œIt is finishedâ€• at Calvary,
the last debt was paid.

Iâ€™m saved, forgiven.
Iâ€™ve been born again,
washed in the blood
of the crucified lamb.
Set free from sinâ€™s chains,
my life has changed.
I stand no longer condemned.
You may wonder why
tears fill my eyes
when I see redemptionâ€™s cost.
Iâ€™ll never get over
what God put under
the blood of an old rugged cross.

I remember the time
of convictionâ€™s strong power.
The preacher was preaching,
â€œThis is the hour.â€•
bearing the burdens,
the weight of my sin,
trying to change me
again & again.
He said, â€œBehold the lamb:
the sacrifice made.
Itâ€™s under the blood.
The debt has been paid.â€•

I'm saved, forgiven.

I've been born again,

washed in the blood

of the crucified lamb.

Set free from sin's chains,

my life has changed.

I stand no longer condemned.

You may wonder why

tears fill my eyes

when I see redemption's cost.

I'll never get over

what God put under

the blood of an old rugged cross.

What sins are you talking about?

I don't remember them anymore.

You may wonder

why tears fill my eyes

when I see redemption's cost.

I'll never get over

what God put under

the blood of an old rugged cross,

old rugged cross.
