

Let You Break

William Fitzsimmons

To cut out the figure
The grounding of this
Let melancholic drown To greener reminders
Of better pastures
You're beautiful and found Embattled walls that I have raised
To only bring you down
A fortune I would gladly trade
To swim within the sound I wish you would
I wish you would I will never, I will never
I will never let you break
I will never, I will never
I will never let you break The burn of the summer
When I first saw you
Still upon my brow The gentle refusal
The fear you flourish
Let peel away from now The red that I have run so long
The penchant for this flight
The memory of this overcomes
Lifting now to light I wish you would
I wish you would I will never, I will never
I will never let you break
I will never, I will never
I will never let you break I will never, I will never
I will never let you break
I will never, I will never
I will never let you break
