

Run for Your Life

Bullet for My Valentine

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

[Verse 1]

You need to know what it's like
To be left and crucified
To be stripped and torn to pieces
You just left me there to die[Pre-Chorus 1]
Tell me why do you breed
All this hate and misery
Is this just another statement of your insecurity?
But now's your chance[Chorus]
You better run for your life
You won't get my sympathy
(I'll hunt you down)
Now's your chance
You better run for your life
You won't get my sympathy
(I'll hunt you down)
And I won't let you get away[Verse 2]
[?]

You can't escape, your screams can't be heard
Intoxicated by the smell of your fear
You can't hide[Pre-Chorus 2]
So tell me why do you need
All this animosity
Is this just another statement of your insecurity?
But now's your chance[Chorus]
You better run for your life
You won't get my sympathy
(I'll hunt you down)
Now's your chance
You better run for your life
You won't get my sympathy
(I'll hunt you down)

And I won't let you get away[Break]
You better run for your life
Run motherfucker[Bridge]
Now I'm taking you out
You're fucking making me sick
Now I'm taking you out[Chorus]
So run for your life
You won't get my sympathy
(I'll hunt you down)
Now's your chance
You better run for your life
You won't get my sympathy
(I'll hunt you down)
And I won't let you get away[Outro]
I won't let you get away
I won't let you get away
