Lucky Numbers

Generationals

I saw a car that doesn't make a sound.
And I heard your boy let everybody down.
You never know there's just no way to see it coming.I hate to watch you give it all away.
You took the time to tell me to my face.
I know the way you like to keep the motor running.It just goes to show
You got a lot of things that you don't know.
It's not so complex.
You just need a new direction to go.
It takes so long to reciprocate.
That's the way to never take the bait.
I don't know what's the use in making me a martyr.When I was 20 you were 25.
I don't know how we made it out alive.
I don't know why you had to make it any harder.It just goes to show
You've got a lot of things that you don't know.
It's not so complex.
You just need a new direction to go.I never said it's gonna happen today.
I know you tell me when you think I'm wrong.
I know you're never gonna live in LA.
I know you're never gonna wait that long.Don't push yourself to turn people down.
You've got your hands for pushing me around.
I don't know why you have to make it any harder.
And we're supposed to know
You've got a lot of things that you don't show.
It's not so complex.
You just need a new direction to go
