Rocket Ride

Edguy

I sought salvation but I found insanity
Lost in a mess I return to profanityI've been reaching for the sky but I got stuck with my feet down in concreteDon't you run away now - Don't you be afraid
You know there is a meaning - woah
Don't you run away now - Don't you live a lie
There's more in life than struggle - Take a rocket rideSuffered my way with divine aspiration
I failed to resist the sweetest temptation
Been stuck to religion till I've clung to the pie
You never really miss it until you really tryTried to jump but held down by concrete the venery surrounding my feetOh I've tried to reach higher
On and on but my flesh is too weak
Been searching for answers - I've been led to the fire
There must be a reason for us to be down here
Oh I'm drifting - temptation
Carried out to sea - I'm drifting - I'm drifting away I'm drifting away - I'm drifting awayI've been reaching for the sky but I got stuck with my feet down in concreteDon't you run away now....
