

The Wrath

Vader

Temple of hate, a place accursed by the Gods the walls all in blood of tormented to death putrid face of Demon gutting sacrifice in light of full moon come in! eternal flame will brand your soul Demon's eye in bloodred sky you will suffer, you have to die prophecy of certain death no escape - you are a victim of the unholy wrath Screams from depths of mind cry of mutilated souls tyrant drops from the scratched wounds of God Virus of hatred invades the brains of tyrants throwing into fire they create the endless violence priests of war, creatures of the crime merciless dictators, the lords of human fright
