Always Know Where You Are

Bbmak

It's good to see the sun and feel this place
This place I never thought would feel like home
And I ran forever, far away and I
I always thought, I'd end up here alone
Somehow, the world has changed
And I've come home
To give you back the things they took from you
And I feel you now, I'm not alone
I'll always know where you are
When, I see myself
I'll always know where you are, where you are
And I found something, that was always there
Sometimes it's got to hurt before you feel
But now, I'm strong and I won't kneel
Except to thank who's watching over me
Somehow, I feel so strong
And I've begun
To be the one I never thought I'd be
And I feel you now, I'm not alone
I'll always know where you are
When I see myself
I'll always know where you are, where you are
Now, it's all so clear and I believe
That everything's been opened up to me
And I feel you now, I'm not alone
I always know, I always know where you are
When, I see myself
I'll always know where you are
When I feel the sun
I'll always know where you are
When, I see myself
I'll always know where you are
Where you are
