Nothing

No One

I can feel it again
let the games begin
turn the lights down inviting the energysuddenly, I can see something changing in me turn away all the pain Inside me!Nothing can take me away from my escape
it is my way
this is my wayNothing can break me
or take away the need
it is my fate
this is my fateYesterday I had died with frustrations inside will I ever change
this part of meIn my head I have seen
this was not true to meTook my sad soul and I made it somethingNothing can shake me
away from my escape
it is my way
this is my way my way on the high wayNothing can break me
or take away the need
it is my fate
this is my fateNothing can take me
it is my way
it is my fate
this is my fateNothing you could ever say could ever change me
nothing you could ever take could ever break me
nothing you could ever say
could ever make me
could ever make....Nothing you could ever say
could ever change me

could ever make me
nothing you could ever say....Nothing can take me
this is my way
it is my way
this is my fate
