Fuck Everybody Else

Domo Genesis

Don't act like you don't know what I'm talking about
No mercy for the weak
You found yourself too deep
Now reversin back through the creek
Quit bitchin' on your words birds and rehearsing what they preach
I walk with purpose in these streets
This ain't no nervousness in me
I heard it first that they was sleep
Well I hope this shit is Tempurpedic
So you can feel real comfortable while I fucking lead it
I'm prone to kill, I'm now feeling like it's open season
Don't hail over me bitch I'll tear your heart into fucking pieces
Stuffing marijuana in the broken cigar
Crack the sunroof I like to feel close to the stars
Used to be shy, and now I'm like the biggest boast in the yard there ain't no hope in approaching me dawg
Feelin' like a villain in the city
Puffin' sticky, sippin' sizzy

Word to Juicy bitch, I'm trippy
The exclusive bitch that's with me, making sure my drink ain't tippin'
While I'm hangin' out in the back like the nigga that killed Biggie
Young Doms and I bleed ice water
But if a bitch get me in a right mind, I might offer
One night, let her shine one time then lights off her
I'm hard, you niggas bark loud and bite softer
Teeth marks all in my style, that might cost ya
Broke jaw leave you a light talker
I roll dope and I ignite often
It's no mercy for the weak
If you sleep I hope you make it through the night partner
Don't sleep on my nigga Doms, my nigga
Y'all niggas don't even know my nigga
Fuck everybody else nigga
Shouts out to my nigga Alchemist
It's Left Brain motherfucka
Yeah nigga, Left Brain said it
Don't act like you don't know what I'm talking about
