

That Man

Mother Tongue

[Chorus - Sleepy Brown]

Everywhere that I seem to go, all people they know

 There goes that man

 Cadillac's steady move, all ladies choose it

 There goes that man

 Been all around the world and I kissed every girl

 There goes that man

 Girl this ain't no kind of allusion, it's really that man

 There goes that man

[Verse 1 - Duddy Ken]

Hey, when we step up out the play man

 We bring that monster A game

 Switchin or say through lanes

 Green on my shirt like Tulane

 Drunk and drivin in two lanes

 Dirt Reynolds, that's the new name

 Dip out and handle a few thangs

 Bet I come back a rich man

 Some of these cats is bitch made

 My shift be like a switch blade

 The doors, open this way

 That man, went that a way

 Chase cheese like a rat race

 Push my button like there

 And that's gonna get you nowhere

 Just like you fuckin yourself

 I've been all over the globe and hit a lot little spots (spots)

 Met bitches that love the nigga, that's if she fucked me or not (not)

 Trappin what's in my spot (spot)

 Not movin, just got me no dough

 It's like my money was slow mo'

 I bought a car and got Mobile

 My city's up on my shoulders

 I'm takin life as we know of

 Tranformin into a whole 'nother world and time

 Beat up tracks and murder rhymes

 Don't dare close the curtain, cause I'm just beginnin

 Bubba was the beginnin but bitch I'ma end it

Hey, I'm that man, man

[Chorus]

[Verse 2 - Bubba Sparxxx]

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Shit, I'm a Dodge Rammer, god damn if I ain't two and 0

I'm competin and momma's eatin, so am I losin? No

But shit was movin slow, I had to switch machines up

Destiny don't always match with the shit you dreamed up

But Bubba ain't no cream puff

In my life, I've seen much

Held the thrills and the spills

Through it all, I kept it trill

Guarantee I never will ever feel as helpless

As I did these last couple years, I know you felt this

Really don't expect no forgiveness for "Deliverance"

Then again I offer no apologies, I meant the shit

Cause I lived the shit, truth is truth and that's the end of it

I'm up and runnin, bet my jersey's in the rafters when I sit

Watched it when I get a hit, everybody benefits

I'm far removed from innocence, a year older than twenty-six

Pussy just remember this, I ain't chose the path I'm on

If you want it, come and get it, as that man I stand alone (oh!)

[Chorus]

[Verse 3 - Bubba Sparxxx]

Duddy! Haha

Uh huh, hey say, hey let the guns play

I just came with "Me, Myself, and I" like Beyonce

Let these suckers run they coffee coolers, I'm the truest country motherfucker, bust and kill the talk, it's time to do it

Everything your idol do it, I can do it cock eyed

Three albums supplied, once I have not lied

That should mean a lot right?

Maybe when they open up the books, I can get a look

You must admit, I'm dope as fuck, true I ain't devoted much of my raps to dope, I'm just a little to preoccupied with the truth, you know what's up

Sorry but I know this much, Bubba K is sen-sat-ional

That shit ain't no bull

Ain't no bull that I can't pull, I am him

That'll be the case, if I'm ridin rims or shinin them

Bubba baby, more trouble baby, ha I love you hate me

Ask your lady, is it maybe her that I've been pluggin lately

Fucker [echo]
