The Greatest Day

Andreas Johnson

Caught the mystic in your eyes
Black as ink and dark as night
You run your fingers through my hair
But our eyes speak what my mouth won't dare to sayNever let me go, I swearBaby, today will be the greatest day of all
And you will be everything you want to be today
Baby, this is the greatest dayCaught the weakness in your smile
A sign of something that you can't deny
You look so peaceful when you say
This mad existence, I would never ever give awaySo never let me go, my loveBaby, today will be the greatest day of all
And you will be everything you want to be today
Baby, this is the greatest day
Today will be the greatest day, todayBaby, the world on your shoulders
Baby, it soon will be over
So take this time and make this the greatest dayCaught the mystic in your eyes
Black as ink and sweet as the stars at night
