

One More Song for You

The Katinas

As long as there is time
The one breath left in me
There will always
Be one more song for YouAs long as there is room for one more voice of praise
And a need for a word of love and truth
To help my brother through
There'll be one more song for YouYou were there with Your songs of laughter
Words of hope for our fears
But what are songs when no one will sing them
What are words when no one hearsThere were times when lying gave question
When I asked, no one knew
Then I found the answer's in YouSo as long as there is time
And one breath left in me
There will always
Be one more song for YouAnd as long as there is room for one more voice of praise
And a need for a word of love and truth
To help my brother through
There'll be one more song for YouLove is in the air around me
Hope abounds everywhere
Living life in the arms of Jesus
Learning how to really careEveryday is filled with purpose
All the old is made new
And I know, I owe it all to YouOne more song for You
One more song for You
One more song for YouOne more song for You
One more song for You
One more song for YouSo as long as there is time
And one breath left in me
There will always
Be one more song for YouOh, as long as there is room for one more voice of praise
And a need for a word of love and truth
To help my brother through
There'll be one more song for YouOne more song for YouAs long as there is time, one breath in me
As long as there is room, more voice of praise
As long as there is time, one breath in me
I'll sing one more song for You

Songwriters

Omartian Michael; Omartian StormiePublished by

WORD MUSIC, LLC;UNIVERSAL MUSIC CORPORATION Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>