Had Enough

Eclectics

Loneliness
Pacing up and down these hallways
Second guessing every thought
Mystified
Just spinning 'round in circles
Drowning in the silent screaming
With nothing left to say
Every time I reach for you
There's no one there to hold on to
Nothing left for me to miss
I'm letting go, letting go of this
Lost my mind thinking it through
The light inside has left me too
Now I know what empty is
I've had enough, had enough of this
I believe
That love should be a reason
To give and get back in return
I wanna breathe
In a new beginning
With someone who will wrap her arms
Around what's left of me
Every time I reach for you
There's no one there to hold on to
Nothing left for me to miss
I'm letting go, letting go of this
Lost my mind thinking it through
The light inside has left me too
Now I know what empty is
I've had enough, had enough of this
Inside I'm barely holding on
There's something that's already gone
Inside of me the world is in this all alone
Every time I reach for you
There's no one there to hold on to
Nothing left for me to miss
I'm letting go of this
Lost my mind thinking it through
The light inside has left me too

Now I know what empty is
I've had enough, had enough of this
Every time I reach for you
There's no one there to hold on to
Nothing left for me to miss
I'm letting go, letting go of this
Lost my mind thinking it through
The light inside has left me too
Now I know what empty is
I've had enough, had enough of this
I've had enough, had enough of this
