Umbrella

Trespassers William

You've waited to say
There's no way that our bodies are one
Until today
With the rain under umbrellasThe cover was warm but there's a hole
And the rain comes in
Stand as far as you want
Right now I don't thinkThe rain will cry with us
Love let down the umbrella
Afraid, I'll see you as you are
Had I see your eyes falterI won't say, "Stay"
I'll play the marble heart
You're beautiful
Maybe so but it's gotten darkSo it's just you walking through
The pain you made
Love, tell me more let it pour
I don't feel the rainThe rain will cry with us
Love let down the umbrella
Afraid, I'll see you as you are
Had I see your eyes falterMy silence
An ornament that you'll keep
It would've been easy if I'd break and weep
Taste your own tears when you go to sleepLove under your umbrella
Still beautiful maybe so
Love let down the umbrella
The rain will cry with us
Love under your umbrella
