

You and Me

Parachute

Hold my gun and watch the door,
Pick the lock and cut the phone,
Keep your head up love,
Ain't nobody who can stop us.
Grab the bags when sirens call,
We're out the window through the yard,
Keep it locked up tight,
Ain't nobody who can stop us.

Baby I've had the same dream,
Where I wake up
Wondering what it really means
If the world came running down
If it was
You and me against the world
Baby they cut us under but we'll take whatever we want
If it was
You and me against the world
You keep the car, I'll get the cash,
We'll take the money and run
Oh

They'll come running through the door,
Shattered glass across the floor.
Oh they think they know but we both know they don't.
Oh we did our crime and got away,
We stole the gold and made the day,
And we're both smiling
Oh they're saying
Ain't nobody who can stop us.

Baby I've had the same dream,
Where I'd wake up
Wondering what it really means,
If the world came running down.
If it was
You and me against the world
Baby they cut us under but we'll take whatever we want.
If it was

You and me against the world
You keep the car, I'll get the cash,
We'll take the money and run.

Oh I keep waking up in an empty bed,
And it's reminding me of all the things I should have said,
And all we could have had.

If it was you and me against the world.
Baby they cut us under, but we'll take whatever we want.
If it was you and me against the world.
You keep the car, I'll get the cash,
We'll take the money and run.

If it was you and me.
Baby they got our number, but we'll take whatever we want.

If it was you and me.
You get the car, I'll get the cash, we'll take the money and run.
You get the car, I'll get the cash, we'll take the money and run.

It's you and me against the world.
