Grape Soda

At the back of our school was an alley,
And I was in third grade and there was this chick I had a crush on,
And we were walking back there and then I held her hand, and then she kept holding my hand.
And then we walked to where you walk out the alley, and she turned and gave me a kiss on my lips Then she let go of my hand and ran into fucking recess
And I was like, "Yo."
