

Exciter

Strapping Young Lad

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Racing 'cross the heavens, straight into the dawn
Looking like a comet, slicing through the morn
Scorching the horizon, blazing to the land
Now he's here amongst us the age of fire's at hand Stand up for Exciter
Salvation is his task
Stand up for Exciter
Salvation bids to ask Everything he touches, fries into a crisp
Let him get close to you so you're in his trip
First you'll smoke and smolder blister up and singe
When ignition hits you the very soul of your being will cringe Stand up for Exciter
Salvation is his task
Stand up for Exciter
Here he comes now
Fall to your knees and repent if you please Who is this man? Where is he from?
Exciter comes for everyone
You'll never see him
But you will taste the fire upon your tongue He's come to make you snap out of the state that you are in
Looks around and make you see the light again
So much self-indulgence, results in shattered eyes
Predominant complacency leads to beguiling lies Stand up for Exciter
Salvation is his task
Stand up for Exciter
Salvation bids to ask When he leaps amidst us with combustive dance
All shall bear the branding of his thermal lance
Cauterizing masses melting into one
Only when there's order will his job be done Stand up for Exciter
Salvation is his task
Stand up for Exciter
Here he comes now
Fall to your knees and repent if you please Where is this man? Where is he from?
Exciter comes for everyone
You'll never see him

But you will taste the fire upon your tongue
Racing past the heavens, straight into the dawn
Looking like a comet, slicing through the morn
Scorching the horizon, blazing to the land
Now he's here amongst us the age of fire's at hand
Stand up for Exciter
Stand up for Exciter
Stand up for Exciter
