Crashing Around You

Machine Head

When I come for you
When I see through you
When I eat through you
When I destroy youI am your nightmares, true scares
Those dreams when you cant stop from fallin'
Cant fight, cant run
Cant stop the person,youve becomeI am your heartbreaks, mistakes
That place inside, your hate
I am that shadow following every move
Reminding youThat its never good enough, never good enough
Even though youll try and try
Im gonna call your bluff
Because I am the thing, bringin' the feelings whenYour world comes crashin' around you
Smashes down around you, yeah
When will you see that you cannot hide from me?When you feel darkness, hopeless
Cant cope with all the stress
Ill make you hate life, bring strife
Remember failures, hardened stareAnd its never gonna change, never gonna change
Always theyll be judgin' you
Compared to who and who
You trust in me but I only live to seeYour world comes crashin' around you
Smashes down around you, yeah
When will you see that you cannot hide from me?When I come for you
When I see through you
When I eat through you
When I destroy youYoull think, youre betrayed, astray
Ill leave you ripped and torn so bad you
Cant trust, cant love
Cant understand why lifes so fuckedIm deep inside your mind
In constant remind
If you leave your thoughts to me, believe
Ill make sure that I seeYour world come crashin' around you
Smash down around you, yeah
When will you see that you cannot hide from me?Ill make your, your world come crashin' around you
Smash down around you, yeah
Ill let you see why cannot hide from me
Because I am you
