

Alohum

Lucid Fly

The sound of a low hum
Loomed overhead
Led me willingly
Off the beaten path
In a direction
That Ive never been to before
A reconnection
That I needed to explore
A chance to remember you
Deepening my curiosity
The sound of your hum
Led me willingly
To an absent past
A chance to remember you
No more goodbyes
No matter how things change
No more goodbyes
No more goodbyes
A reflection of who I was
No matter how things change
No more good byes
A river cast upon my eyes
A reflection of who I was
No matter how things change
A chance to remember you
To remember you
once more
