

66 Crush

Planes Mistaken for Stars

sentiment lost in translation.
there's a glitch in transmission.
but i think it goes.
i would die or kill anyone for you.
and if they're there.
i dare them down to you.
i'll tear them down for you.
because i refuse to be without you.
or the things you do.
because i refuse to bury you
