

Send in the Drones

Tumbleweed Company

So I know it's real, it's got your stamp and seal but your fatal zeal, it's going to ruin you And I'm coming to my senses, see forest through the fences and on the other side there won't be any need of youWell your right hand man's got a business plan that's going to set the world on fire And all the chairs in your chamber stare at you shining there like the idolSo send in the drones
Send in the drones
On the other side you won't have a home at allI've seen it all before
I've seen it all before
We don't need you anymore
No, we don't need you at allWell since grade one you've been having your fun writing scripture in my textbook And now you are no better, trade paper for the fetters and hope one day to pay you to be rid of themWell I don't know about you, but I know just what to do I'm going to head out to the mountains and climb my way out of these shackles and chains and call no man my captainSo send in the drones
Send in the drones
On the other side you won't have a home at allI've seen it all before
I've seen it all before
We don't need you anymore
No, we don't need you at all
