

Psychofuckindelic

Thelonious Monster

When I get up in the morning
Want my breakfast in bed
If you don't give it to me
I'll get someone else instead
Why don't you get along
If you don't like it, get along
Well I try to do right by you
I end up doin' wrong, so get along Well first you say you love me
And now you say you don't
No one's keepin' you here, baby
Why don't you get along, just get along
Why don't you get along
When I try to do right
I end up doin' wrong, get along Do right, do wrong Well first you say you love me
And now you say you don't
I just wanna know, baby
What is it you want, what you want
Why don't you tell me what you want
If I can't give it to you
You should just get along Get along
You should just get along
Baby, you should get along
I try to do right
I end up doin' wrong, get along
If you don't like it get it, get along
