

(There's Gonna Be a) Showdown

New York Dolls

Say man, they tell me you think you're pretty good
Don't you know you're in my neighborhood
And they tell me you're pretty fast on your feet
You better be at the dance down on 14th street, you hear Yeah there's gonna be a showdown
There's gonna be a showdown
There's gonna be a showdown
Yeah, yeah, there's gonna be a showdown I've got the ten notches right on my shoes
'Cause when it comes to dancin', I just can't lose
They call me the top cat, right in this man's town
I just want you to meet me, baby when the sun goes down that's when There's gonna be a showdown
There's gonna be a showdown
