Magdalena

dEUS

You drive too fast
Can you please shut up
I'll call the police
If you don't stopYou're just trying to scare me
You want me to know
That you're not this precious
Little thing you holdYou're afraid you say
(And you're never sure)
Of the coming day

(If what you've seen before)And I'm not that handsome (Is what you'll see again)

Anyway

(In remembering)But I'm feeling good And if you don't exist You're still one illusion

That I can't resistNow you're holding back

And I'm holding on

Heaven knows what you want'Cause kicks like these

They're coming fast

But watching how long they lastIt's a funny time to fall in love Feels like something pulled me up

To see me fall right offYou drive too fast

But I don't care

Wherever is fine

Just take me thereNow I'm holding back and you're moving on

Heaven knows what I want

'Cause on a day like this I'd believe anything I don't know where to beginOne for your coming

Two for your shoes

Your buccaneer loving

And suicide moodsI wanna move

Into the new

Out of the blue, out of the darknessInto the new, out of the blackness
