Bled to Death

Six Feet Under

Mortuary
filled with my dead
a temptation to kill again before and after death i drink your bloodthe carnivore of human flesh the cannibal within the darkness lives i stalk and plan to kill them one by onecemetery rotting bodies
a corpse i fucking pieces begins decomposition spiders crawl
out of your skull dried bones of your body are never foundmy cold black eyes stare deep into your dead soula new victim i now crave to control my lust for death i cannot fulfill sliced the throat fom ear to ear BLED TO DEATHthe carnivore of human flesh the cannibal within the darkness live
one by one
