

Hide and Seek

RPWL

Remember when we were kids
And we loved to play hide and seek Counted to ten and the place
That was crowded before
Was empty and still
And while everyone was found
I knew this place at the very end of our street
A small wooden shed
Through a hole in the wall
I sneaked in
All alone i waited for hours and hours and hours and....
Trapped by the lie of belief frightened by the human being
It's clear that you fear and you
Fight everything you don't know
But now the fight me
And all my comrades in arms
It seems that all knowledge is more cause than a cure
Now we have to hide
Haunted by the ghosts of Paul
All alone i waited for hours and hours and hours and....
Who brings the good news to the poor?
When belief is the sight of the blind
And shadow reigns over the light
Holey apathy is all you can find
So what shall we do?
We can't even open the doors
No money in our pockets and nothing to eat any more
Disconnected and caged
In this secret place
All alone i waited for hours and hours and hours and....
Fanatics who won't change their Mind, will never change the world
The difference is our common ground
There's no sense in us all being the same
