Outbreak

Apologies are worthless and I've heard it all before, the same old story, it's such a bore. You won't get the best of me anymore. I remembered every word and every dirty and I'll never forget the cheap shots you took. Walked on me, pushed me aside, covered it up with a bunch of lies. It's hard to cope but I'll be okay, who wants to be miserable anyway? Fuck all of you, you were never there, when I needed your help you didn't care. You didn't fucking
