I Am The Night, Colour Me Black

Priestess

I know where you were born
I know its you
Ill wait for weeks to find out
Thats nothing true
And Ill wait too longYou had it all before
I noticed you
And now your wildest dreams are falling through
So Ill waitAnd youll wait for me
Unlock the door
I want the truth cause
If its exactly what it claims to be then it may just set me freeI know where you were born
I know its you
Your tiny hands were cold
But I wanted you anywayNow Im back in uniform
Back to the sea
O simple life Ive known
Come back to me
And Ill waitIll shed this human form and Ill walk away
The night controls me now and thats where Ill stay
And Ill waste away but Ill make sure you dont
