Pretenders

Reef

Come onWhen they get to your heart
They're gonna work you out
And when they do they'll stop following
When they do they'll stop following youSpeak your name again and they run away
Laughing loud as they run away
Don't kid yourself they're laughing at youOne day soon, you say you're gonna
Chase your dream
You do it now or you never will
No you won't they'll walk right through youConfused kids shout out that they paid money
Paid money to watch you not believe
Paid money and now they're leavingThey're gone, they're not returning
Because you are pretendingCome onWhat I sing about oh, well never mind
But listen up and I'm sure you'll find
I sing of you and you'll never noticeWords I sing they're helping me to believe
Its more than that
You know it makes me breathe
With breath in blood I know I'm livingThey're gone they're not returning
Because you are so boring
