Lies

The Pierces

La la lie la la lie la la lie
La la lie la la lie la la lie
La la lie la la lie la la lie
La la lie la la lie la la lie, ha
I've got a real one for you
I'm done with compromise
Lies of white and black and blue
They hide inside those big brown eyes
You've got me, dirty angel
Aren't you ready to come clean?
When I'm looking down with sorrow
You say that I'm being mean
Don't you hear me when I say I'm lonely?
Do I kid myself to think
That I am your one and only?
I can't tell you how many times
I've cried over you, my baby
I've had one too many
Sleepless nights over you
My baby, baby, ah
Can't you see I'm wounded, baby?
Go ahead and put me down
You keep saying that I'm crazy
There's just rumors going 'round
I'm dying to believe you
Tell me, what else should I do?
Who would want to play a fool
Then find out it was true?
Don't you hear me
When I say I'm lonely?
Do I kid myself to think
That I am your one and only?
I can't tell you how many times
I've cried over you, my baby
I've had one too many
Sleepless nights over you, my baby
Baby, ah
Baby, ha
Cross your heart and hope to die

White or black it's still a lie
Every city that you fly
I sit home and wonder why
While you're out there getting high
One more night for me to cry
Can you look me in the eye
Cross your heart and hope to die
Hope to die, hope to die
Hope to die, hope to die
I can't tell you how many times
I've cried over you, my baby
I've had one too many
Sleepless nights over you, my baby
I can't tell you how many times
I've cried over you, my baby
I've had one too many
Sleepless nights over you, my baby
I can't tell you how many times
I've cried over you, my baby
I've had one too many
Sleepless nights over you, my baby
