

Duke and Duchess

David LeMair

She took me to a secret place
Up in the snow covered hills
She had the kind of voice and face
You know youâ€™ve seen that kills

She said that she needed me
Said I was the key
And by some strange magic
The door just openedâ€™opened

She was a messenger
A chosen seductress
Through us they could live again
The Duke and the Duchess

They said that they needed me
Oooh, to set them free
And by some strange magic
The door just openedâ€™opened

As I stood there
I was unaware
In a moment
In my head
Iâ€™d be walking
Talking
Communicating with the dead

Chorus
Is it love or just infatuation?
Is it real or my imagination?

Do we have to go on playing this game?
Come on baby wonâ€™t you tell me your real name?

Everytime I see your face
I lose control
Yeah, thereâ€™s something about you babe
Makes me wannaâ€™ know

I gotta know

Chorus

Chorus

Do we have to go on playing this game?
Come on baby won't you tell me your real name?
