

Cerrone's Paradise (Edit)

Cerrone

The music surrounds us
the lights all aglow, it's our persuasionThe way that we're dancing how can I resist so much temptation?And can you imagine the heaven I've dreamed about Together we'll find that magical land of love
This sensual feeling is more than just fantasy It's everything paradise promised to be!
And can you imagine the heavenly ecstasy
The moment that I'm gonna give to you all of me Caresses excite me
I'm weak for your tender touch
You're whispering softly
"I want you so much!"The music gets higher,
I don't want to stop this sweet sensationThe closer we're dancing,
The stronger I feel your love vibrationAnd can you imagine the heaven that two can share I'm ready for love and I want you to take me thereHigher and higher, my head's spinning round and round
I want to hold on to the good thing we found.
And can you imagine the heavenly ecstasy
The moment that I'm gonna give to you all of meCaresses excite me
I'm weak for your tender touch
You're whispering softly
"I want you so much!"
