Come In From The Cold

Joni Mitchell

Back in 1957 we had to dance a foot apart And they hawk eyed us from the sidelines Holding their rulers, without a heart And so with just a touch of our fingers I could make our circuitry explode All we ever wanted Was just to come in from the cold Come in, come in, come in Come in, oh, come in from the cold Come in, come in We were so young Ooh, come in, come in, come in Come in from the cold We really thought, we had a purpose We were so anxious, to achieve We had hope, the world held promise For a slave to liberty Freely I slaved away for something better And I was bought and sold And all I ever wanted Was just to come in from the cold Come in, come in, come in Come in from the cold Come in, come in We were so sure Who's coming in? Come in, come in, come in Come in from the cold I feel your legs under the table Leaning into mine I feel renewed, I feel disabled By these bonfires in my spine I don't know who the arsonist was Which incendiary soul But all I ever wanted Was just to come in from the cold Come in, come in, come in Oh, come in from the cold, yea Come in, come in

We were too far Please come in

Come in, come in, come in

Come in from the cold

I am not some stone commission

Like a statue in a park

I am flesh and blood and vision

I am howling in the dark

Long blue shadows of the jackals

Are falling on a pay phone by the road

Oh, all they ever wanted

Was just to come in from the cold

Come in, come in, come in

Come in from the cold

Come in, come in

I was so low

Ohh, come in

Come in, come in, come in

Come in from the cold

Is this just vulgar electricity?

Is this the edifying fire?

It was so pure

Does your smile's covert complicity

Debase as it admires?

Just a flu with a temperature

Are you just checkin' out your mojo?

Or am I just fightin' off growing old

Just a high fever

All I ever wanted

Was just to come in from the cold

Come in, come in, come in

Come in, oh, come in from the cold

Come in. come in

It was so pure

Please come in

Come in, come in, come in

Come in from the cold

Ooh

I know we never will be perfect

Never entirely clear

When the moon shines

We get hurt and we just panic

And we strike out, out of fear

You were only being kind

I fear the sentence of this solitude

Two hundred years on hold
For my loving crime
Oh, and all we ever wanted
Was just to come in from the cold
Come in, come in, come in, come in
Come in, come in from the cold
Come in, come in
When the moon shines
Ohh, come in

Come in, come in, come in

Come in from the cold

When I thought life had some meaning

Then I thought I had some choice I was running blind

And I made some value judgments
In a self important voice

I was outta line

But then absurdity came over me

And I longed to lose control

Into no mind

Oh, all I ever wanted

Was just to come in from the cold

Come in, come in, come in

Oh, come in from the cold

Come in, come in

You were so kind

Please come in

Come in, come in, come in

So kind

Come in from the cold

Come in, come in

Oh, come in, come in

Come in, come in, come in

Come in from the cold

Come in, come in

I was so low

Come in, come in

Come in, come in, come in

Come in from the cold

Come in, come in

Please come in

Come in, come in, come in
