

Mirrors (Deezer Acoustic Session)

PVRIS

White lights are too bright.
I just wanna see a trace or an outline.
Say your name into a mirror three times, said it three times, said it three times. But when you float above my body,
I can see clearly straight through the ceiling. Darling don't be so shy,
I'll see you at midnight and when I close my eyes.
I said it three times, I said it three times,
You make my world spin, placebo feelings.
And in the morning I'll wait to see you again. Your dead eyes before mine.
The way they're missing their whites, yeah they're just right.
I know you're dead inside and that's what I like.
What I like.
But when you float above my body, standing up right above me,
I don't feel so lonely. Darling don't be so shy,
I'll see you at midnight and when I close my eyes.
I said it three times, I said it three times,
You make my world spin, placebo feelings.
And in the morning I'll wait to see you again. In the morning I hope I see you by my side,
With my own eyes,
In the sunlight.
I go searching through reflections for your outline.
But it's just mine. It's just mine. I know you're dead inside,
But you make me feel alive. Darling don't be so shy,
I'll see you at midnight and when I close my eyes.
I said it three times, I said it three times,
You make my world spin, placebo feelings.
And in the morning I'll wait to see you again

Songwriters

HARNAGE, BLAKE / GUNNULFSEN, LYNDSHEY Published by

Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>