

Nothin'

Alison Krauss

Hey mama, when you leave
Don't leave a thing behind
I don't want nothin?
I can't use nothin?
Take care into the hall
And if you see my friends
Tell them I'm fine
Not using nothin?
Almost burned out my eyes
Threw my ears down to the floor
I didn't see nothin?
I didn't hear nothin?
I stood there like a block of stone
Knowin' all I had to know
And nothin' more
Man, that's nothin?

Being born is going blind
And bowin' down a thousand times
To echoes strung
On pure temptation
Sorrow and solitude
These are the precious things
And the only words
That are worth rememberin'
And, mama, when you leave
Don't leave a thing behind
I don't want nothin?
I can't, I can't use nothin?
I can't use nothin?
