Edge of Darkness

Carcass

A rising bleak dawn, a permanent sunset
On the human condition, a boot perpetually treads
Illumination snuffed forwards on time will march
Holding as a mirror condemning to repeat the pastEnd time, the realms of a setting sun
Twilight, a new age has begun

Decline, decension to a new dark age
Blank time, an old world not quite so braveRight on the edge

Back on the edgeWe stand on the edge of darknessA fading dusk empty blanketing shade
A dying sun only blackness radiates

Of a new dark age

An aeon ends a millennium overturned

Time lies in embers as barren horizons burnEnd time, the realms of a setting sun

Twilight, a new age has begun Decline, decension to a new dark age

Blank time, an old world not quite so braveRight on the edge

Of a new dark age

Back on the edgeWe stand on the edge of darknessEnd time, the realms of a setting sun Twilight, a new age has begun

Decline, decension to a new dark age
Blank time, an old world not quite so braveRight on the edge
Of a new dark age
Back on the edgeRight on the edge
Of a new dark age
Back on the edge
